THE PROFESSIONAL ACTOR TRAINING PROGRAM (PATP)

The PATP is a three-year conservatory program leading to a Master of Fine Arts degree, designed to prepare students for careers in the professional theatre. Ten actors are chosen every year from national auditions of approximately 1,000 candidates.

The rigorous training includes work in a range of types and styles of performance, including non-realistic, realistic, classical and contemporary plays. The program is intense and demanding, with actors working from 9-5, Monday-Friday, with an additional 25 hours per week spent in rehearsals. The overall aim of the program is to provide students with the practical skills necessary to fully reveal their artistic ideas. The PATP is consistently ranked among the very best graduate training programs in the nation.

Noel Coward's Present Laughter

The financial commitment our students undertake to complete their training is considerable. The School of Drama's Adopt-an-Actor program provides a major source of funding for their essential career entry activity in the Showcase Audition Tour, which introduces them to national casting agents.

Donors become part of the PATP family, and are matched with individual actors. If you are interested in the Adopt-an-Actor program, please call the School of Drama at 206.221.6797.

To donate to the School of Drama, please make your check payable to UW Foundation/Drama, write PATP in the memo line and mail to: UW School of Drama, Box 353950, Seattle, WA 98195-3950. To give on-line, go to: <http://depts.washington.edu/uwdrama/support/support.html>. Thank you.

Director's Note:

Romeo and Juliet is a play about passion and the consequences paid when human passion is given no foundation for positive expression. In Shakespeare's telling of this most popular of love stories, we are given a window into a fractured society based in patriarchal power structures, failing in the exercise of authority along family, political, and religious lines to create an environment for the healthy growth of passionate expression. Tragedy is the inevitable result - as we are forewarned by the play's Prologue. While our own TV screens play unending images of warfare and seemingly inescapable blood feuds that rage from Iraq to Israel to Darfur - to the suburbs and inner city streets of our own "United" States, it is worthwhile to take time to sit with this cautionary tale of desperate love in the midst of a world dominated by hatred, division and violence.

- Daniel Cohen

About the Playwright:

William Shakespeare is the grand literary figure of the Western world. During England's Elizabethan period he wrote dozens of plays which continue to dominate world theater 400 years later. Shakespeare handled high drama, romance and slapstick comedy with equal ease, and so famous are his words that his quotes, from "To be or not to be" to "Parting is such sweet sorrow," take up more than 70 pages in the latest editions of Bartlett's Familiar Quotations. His works rival the King James Bible (also produced in the 1600s) as a source of oft-quoted English phrases. Shakespeare is known as "the Bard of Avon," a nod to his birthplace, and many of his plays were originally performed in the famous Globe Theater in London. Among his best-known plays are Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet, and Macbeth. He is also known for his poetry, especially his sonnets.
